

FIFTEENTH DISTRICT.

Harrison, Panola, Rusk, Shelby, Sabine, and San Augustine counties; Rusk the returning county.—Louis P. Wilson, of Marshall, Harrison county, was born in that place April 3, 1851. His father, N. H. Wilson, was a practicing attorney at the Marshall bar for thirty years, and a partner of Louis T. Wigfall, and later of the Hon. M. D. Ector. On coming of age, young Wilson commenced the practice of law, and, in 1874, was appointed by the city council city attorney, and was elected to the same position by the people April 5, 1881, holding the position until November, 1882. Elected to the House, as a Democrat, receiving 1106 votes to 953 cast for C. C. Montgomery, colored Republican.